

S&H Underwriters would like to announce that our own Tammy Lawrey has recently been awarded Underwriter of the Year by Region I of the National Association of Insurance Professionals International. The Professional Underwriter of the Year Award recognizes a professional underwriter who has demonstrated superior knowledge of the underwriting field, experienced professional advancement through educational pursuits, demonstrated leadership in the field, and is an active participant in IAIP activities. Criteria include IAIP involvement, continuing education, industry involvement, community involvement and an essay on an industry topic.

In addition to this prestigious award, Tammy has also recently earned her AINS designation - Associate in General Insurance, her ASLI designation - Associate in Surplus Lines Insurance, and her DAE designation - Diversified Advanced Education. She has studied very hard over the past years to earn these educational designations. We recognize the commitment, determination and overall drive it takes to attain these educational accomplishments.

Tammy has proven her professionalism through her level of experience in the insurance industry. We are extremely proud of Tammy and her achievements both professionally and personally. We hope you will share in our Congratulations. Way to go Tammy!!

Tammy joined the S&H Underwriters team in 2013 as a Commercial Lines Underwriter. Prior to this she worked as a top producer at the agency level. She has over 20 years of experience in the industry.
